Rugby union, commonly known in most of the world as rugby, contact team sport which originated in England in the half of the 19th century. One the two codes of rugby football, it is based on running with the in hand. In its most common form, a game is between two teams of 15 players using an oval-shaped ball on a rectangular field with H-shaped goalposts on each line. Sat, 19 May 2018 23:34:00

HISTORY
Shortly after Desmond Davis, a Football enthusiast, retired in March 1931, plans were laid by his successor and father of all sport at King Edward, Robbie Robinson to start rugby at the School in the 1932 season. To this end he enlisted the help of a god-father in the person of Eric F.K. Tucker. Wed, 23 May
